

The Sound and the Humanities Research Cluster, in collaboration with Green College, presents the inaugural lecture of the 2023-2024 thematic series:

SOUND SILENCE POWER

CHRISTINA SHARPE

“What Could a Vessel Be?”

Thursday, October 19, 4:30-6:00PM

Great Hall, Graham House, Green College

to be followed by wine & charcuterie reception, GC Piano Lounge

Through quiet and cacophony, word and image, criticism and memoir, mourning and grief, Christina Sharpe’s Ordinary Notes meditates on her life and intellectual formation in an anti-Black world, taking readers into the core of Black life. “What Could a Vessel Be?” continues these reflections, proposing an exploration of the word / concept / idea of the vessel in times of catastrophe.
